Rules Wizard: Collaborates with other members and decides how the game will be played. Responsible for writing the rules to the game. Good rules clearly say how to play, what the objective of the game is, and how game pieces are defined.

Layout Wizard: Collaborates with other members to decide on the overall look of the game. Think about how players will navigate the board. Does it need spaces, maps, or a different design that makes the game logical and entertaining?

Art Wizard: Writes the title, draws or incorporates Civil War images acquired from lessons 1-2, draws relevant symbols, and colors the board.

Q&A Wizard: Converts the Civil War content into 25 challenging but not too difficult questions that will be a part of your game. Works with the Rule Wizard to determine when and how the questions will be used.
